

CONTENTS

January 2012

Romance is in the Air

2

Introducing Polina Shkolnykova, an award winning florist from the Ukraine.

Not only get a glimpse of Polina's impressive wedding portfolio but also enjoy her floral art using natural materials and textures.

16

An edition featuring Romance would not be complete without having a go yourself trying contemporary flower arrangements based on heart shapes. Jocelyn Wright from New Zealand and Pascale Coste from Australia lead you through the steps.

24

Introducing Vanita Patel, a New Zealand demonstrator who regularly visits flower arranging clubs as well as being a home based florist.

She shares her distinctly New Zealand style featuring lush tropical foliage and flowers and we captured them step by step for your enjoyment.

38

The Flower Happening in Belgium is an annual event that showcases the latest European flower arranging trends and techniques.

This is the place to get inspiration for new ideas and we have selected just a few of the most interesting to start you off.

60

The British Columbia Floral Art Society created a floral carpet for their 40th anniversary celebrations and along the way kept a photographic record of how they made it. Now you too will know how to make one for your own celebratory events.

64

It's the New Year Sale as we clean out the storeroom, find the forgotten boxes and you get the bargains!

This is an 'only while stocks last' one off event -once they are gone, it's all over!

DOWNLOAD
this edition of floral design
magazine
CLICK HERE

SUBSCRIBE to floral design
magazine
CLICK HERE

REVIEW the companion DVD
'European Styles 2'
CLICK HERE