One of the great joys of being a progressive floral designer is the opportunity presented to enjoy the different styles and innovations being explored in other countries. This multicultural approach brings fresh perspectives that can be adapted to our own way of doing things.

And in this light, this edition takes you to Romania, Sweden (the home of our newest intern Mila Matyskina), the USA, the Czech Republic and the optional companion lessons originate in New Zealand. Along the way we share with you the interesting, the unusual and the down right gorgeous architecture, countryside and floral work. Each article introduces you to some step by step designs to try yourself so you can learn from the experts while remaining in your own part of the planet. Enjoy!
